UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

9 || ERNEST JORD GUARDADO,

Petitioner,

11 | VS.

12 ROBERT LEGRAND, et al.,

13 || Respondents.

Case No. 3:14-cv-00143-RCJ-WGC

ORDER

Petitioner has submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis (#3) and a petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The court finds that petitioner is unable to pay the filing fee. The court has reviewed the petition pursuant to Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts. Petitioner will need to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action as untimely.

Congress has limited the time in which a person can petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254:

22 A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a
23 person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of—

24 (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

1 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1). If the judgment is appealed, then it becomes final when the Supreme Court
2 of the United States denies a petition for a writ of certiorari or when the time to petition for a writ of 3 certiorari expires. Jimenez v. Quarterman, 555 U.S. 113, 119-20 (2009). See also Sup. Ct. R.
4 13(1). Any time spent pursuing a properly filed application for state post-conviction review or other
5 collateral review does not count toward this one-year limitation period. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2).
6 The period of limitation resumes when the post-conviction judgment becomes final upon issuance
7 of the remittitur. Jefferson v. Budge, 419 F.3d 1013, 1015 n.2 (9th Cir. 2005). An untimely state
8 post-conviction petition is not “properly filed” and does not toll the period of limitation. Pace v.
9 DiGuglielmo, 544 U.S. 408, 417 (2005). A prior federal habeas corpus petition does not toll the 10 period of limitation. Duncan v. Walker, 533 U.S. 167, 181-82 (2001). Section 2244(d) is subject to 11 equitable tolling. Holland v. Florida, 560 U.S. 631, 645 (2010). “[A] ‘petitioner’ is ‘entitled to 12 equitable tolling’ only if he shows ‘(1) that he has been pursuing his rights diligently, and (2) that
13 some extraordinary circumstance stood in his way’ and prevented timely filing.” Id. at 649 (quoting 14 Pace, 544 U.S. at 418). Actual innocence can excuse operation of the statute of limitations.
15 McQuiggin v. Perkins, 133 S. Ct. 1924, 1928 (2013). “[A] petitioner does not meet the threshold
16 requirement unless he persuades the district court that, in light of the new evidence, no juror, acting
17 reasonably, would have voted to find him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.” Id. (quoting Schlup 18 v. Delo, 515 U.S. 298, 329 (1995)). “[A]ctual innocence’ means factual innocence, not mere legal 19 insufficiency.” Bousley v. United States, 523 U.S. 614, 623 (1998). “In cases where the 20 Government has forgone more serious charges in the course of plea bargaining, petitioner’s showing
21 of actual innocence must also extend to those charges.” Id. at 624. The petitioner effectively files a 22 federal petition when he mails it to the court. Stillman v. Lamarque, 319 F.3d 1199, 1201 (9th Cir.
23 2003). The court can raise the issue of timeliness on its own motion. Day v. McDonough, 547 U.S.
24 198, 209 (2006); Herbst v. Cook, 260 F.3d 1039, 1043 (9th Cir. 2001).

1 The court takes judicial notice of the docket of the Nevada Supreme Court in Guardado v.
 2 State, No. 44334,¹ Guardado v. State, No. 52639,² and Guardado v. State, No. 63785.³ The court
 3 also takes judicial notice of its own docket in Guardado v. McDaniel, No. 3:10-cv-00079-RCJ-VPC.

4 In state district court, pursuant to a plea agreement petitioner was convicted of two counts of 5 burglary, one count of first-degree arson, and three counts of possession of stolen property. The 6 state district court entered its judgment of conviction on November 5, 2004. Petitioner appealed.
 7 The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed on June 2, 2005. The judgment of conviction became final
 8 after August 31, 2005.

9 On July 29, 2005, petitioner filed his first post-conviction habeas corpus petition in state
 10 district court. He did this before his judgment of conviction became final, and thus the one-year
 11 period of § 2244(d)(1) was tolled immediately upon the judgment becoming final, with no time
 12 having run. The state district court denied the petition. Petitioner appealed. The Nevada Supreme 13 Court affirmed on February 3, 2010. Remittitur issued on March 2, 2010, and the one-year period
 14 began running the next day.

15 On February 5, 2010, mailed his first federal habeas corpus petition to this court. This 16 petition did not toll the one-year period. Walker, 533 U.S. at 181-82. The court determined that 17 petitioner had not exhausted his available state-court remedies for all of his grounds, and the court
 18 advised petitioner to familiarize himself with the one-year period of § 2244(d)(1). Petitioner asked
 19 the court to stay the action or, in the alternative, to dismiss the action without prejudice. The court
 20 denied petitioner's request for a stay. The court then denied petitioner's motion for reconsideration
 21 and dismissed the action without prejudice. Petitioner did not appeal.

1 On March 22, 2013, petitioner filed his second post-conviction habeas corpus petition in
 2 state district court. The state district court denied the petition because it was untimely pursuant to
 3 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.726(1). Petitioner appealed. On March 12, 2014, the Nevada Supreme Court
 4 affirmed. It held that the petition was untimely pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.726(1) and
 5 successive pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.810(2). Remittitur issued on April 8, 2014. This state
 6 habeas corpus petition was ineligible for tolling under 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2) because it was 7 untimely. Pace, 544 U.S. at 417.

8 Petitioner mailed his second federal habeas corpus petition to this court on March 17, 2014.

9 On its face, the petition in this action is untimely. Because petitioner filed his first state
 10 habeas corpus petition before his judgment became final, the one-year period effectively began to 11 run after March 2, 2010. The period expired at the end of March 2, 2011. Neither his first federal 12 habeas corpus petition nor his second state habeas corpus petition were eligible for tolling under 13 § 2244(d)(2). The current petition is filed more than three years after expiration of the period of 14 limitation. Petitioner will need to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action.

15 Petitioner has submitted a motion for appointment of counsel (#4). Whenever the court
 16 determines that the interests of justice so require, counsel may be appointed to any financially
 17 eligible person who is seeking habeas corpus relief. 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(2)(B). “[T]he district
 18 court must evaluate the likelihood of success on the merits as well as the ability of the petitioner to 19 articulate his claims pro se in light of the complexity of the legal issues involved.” Weygandt v.
 20 Look, 718 F.2d 952 (9th Cir. 1983). There is no constitutional right to counsel in federal habeas
 21 proceedings. McCleskey v. Zant, 499 U.S. 467, 495 (1991). The factors to consider are not
 22 separate from the underlying claims, but are intrinsically enmeshed with them. Weygandt, 718 F.2d
 23 at 954. After reviewing the petition, the court finds that appointment of counsel is not warranted.

24 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the application to proceed in forma pauperis (#3) is 25 GRANTED. Petitioner need not pay the filing fee of five dollars ($5.00).

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk of the court shall file the petition for a writ of 27 habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254.

28

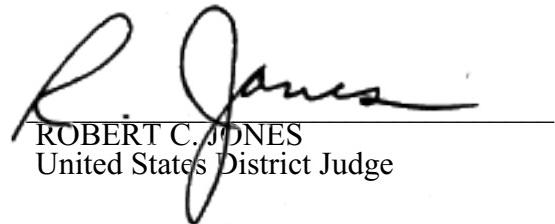

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner shall have thirty (30) days from the date of entry
2 of this order to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action as untimely. Failure to 3 comply with this order will result in the dismissal of this action.

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall add Catherine Cortez Masto, Attorney
5 General for the State of Nevada, as counsel for respondents.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall electronically serve upon respondents a
7 copy of the petition and this order. Respondents' counsel shall enter a notice of appearance herein
8 within twenty (20) days of entry of this order, but no further response shall be required from 9 respondents until further order of the court.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner's motion for appointment of counsel (#4) is 11 DENIED.
